send the DAILY NEWS in any portion of the City at Fifteen Cents per week, payable every Saturday—the paper to be left at any place of business or at any residence within the corporate limits. Parties wanting the News will engage with him or leave their address at this office.
Parties failing to receive their papers will please give notice at once.
Mr. B. will thoroughly canvass the city in order to make the circulation large and complete.
The NEWS will be found for sale every morning at the Depots and Hotels.

Special Notices inserted in the Local Column will be charged Fifteen Cents per line.

All parties ordering the News will please send the money for the time the paper is wanted.

E. C. WOODSON, City Editor.

LOCAL MATTERS.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

No police arrests yesterday.
The city is remarkably quiet.

Citizens' meeting to night at the Court House.
Registration is progressing at the Mayor's office.

Next Wednesday we will have the grand county "paw-wow."

Our Managing Editor returned last evening unscathed, and all by himself.

A new pavement is being laid next to the Market, on both sides of the Square.

A "Jack" fish has been caught in the Neuse river near the city, something heretofore unknown in the history of this stream.

The good citizens of Milbernie Township, those that believe, in signs, regard the fact Alfred Bufaloe has not been drunk since the commencement of the present fishing season on the Neuse as indicative of something ominous.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—National Fire Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conn., Douglas Bell, Esq., Agent. See a list of its assets.

Separks, Hicks & Co.; machinery,
plows, etc., iron fencing, castings, cotton seeds. See advertisement; we will give them a more extended notice hereafter.

C. D. Christophers, is the enterprising family grocer, and confectioner, at the Bunting building, below the Yarmorough. Call and see him.

WAKE SUPERIOR COURT, Judge W.
A. Moore presiding—2nd days proceedings.—The court room yesterday as on the day previous, was closely packed with spectators, the colored element of course, predominating.

Most of the cases tried, had been standing on the docket through several terms, and through the energy and ability of the Solicitor, Gen. W. R. Cox, ally assisted by F. H. Busbee, Esq., most of the old stagers were disposed of, greatly improving the appearance of the docket for future terms.

State vs. Wm. Bell—assault, submission—fined $25 and costs.
State vs. Frank Slade, two cases, larceny—not guilty.

State vs. Lovelace Puryear—larceny—rebound in the sum of $200 to next term.

State vs. Ray and Ray—peace warrant—discharged on payment costs.
State vs. Jesse Norwood; obstructing highway. Up to 8 o'clock last evening, the jury was unable to agree upon a verdict.

The most important case for trial at the present term is the case of the State
vs. Lawhorne, "robbery and conspiracy,"
from Johnson county. The case is set for Wednesday next and will occupy the entire day in its hearing.

Four State witnesses were called and failed to answer, when they were fined
by the Court $50, each.

METROPOLITAN HALL LAST EVEN-ING.—One of the most laughable and entertaining exhibitions ever known at Metropolitan Hall, came off according to programme last evening. The "rads"
of Eastern Ward met in convention to nominate candidates for Commissioners.
One Jas. T. Ball, assisted by Hardy
Lockhart and J. Williams, the latter
two colored, officiated as President,
Vice President and Secretary. A committee was appointed to report the names of candidates. During the absence of the committee, there was much speechifying. We have not space to make personal mention of those who
"came unprepared," and not used to public speaking, and "would have been glad if they had called on a smarter man," etc., etc.

We agreed with them, that they were unprepared, and we should think they were not used to public speaking, and we believe a much smarter man was suddenly needed.

The Committee reported three names
for Commissioners. Here the sport of the evening commenced. The President got too excited to remain in the chair, and yielded to Lockhart. We at one time saw as many as ten on the floor, all calling loudly on "Mr. President." Every man had a motion—no
two alike or referring to the same matter; each man insisted that every body else
was out of order but himself, while old Handy as chairman, labored in vain to impress the fact that all were out of order.

About the moment that the powers of old Handy were exhausted,
Ball resumed the chair. The confusion
was caused by opposition to the ticket.
The desired alteration was, after a time,
made, and the meeting adjourned.
The ticket as nominated, J. Upchurch, Prairie and Ellison.

Coal in parts of Illinois is $17 per ton and scarce.

HERE AND THERE.

Great bargains—At drinking saloons.
Wool gatherings—fights between negroes.

Receipt for rosy cheeks—out door exercise.

Which is the ugliest hood ever worn?
Falsehood.

The mother's heart gives 4th joy at the baby's 1st 2nd, and "y" not.

When is butter like Irish children?
When it is made into little Pats.

Where did Noah preserve the bees during the flood? In the ark—hives (not of gravity, though).

The postmaster at Itaska, Mich., is not related to the President. His salary is $12 a year.

What is the difference between a cloud and a beaten child? One pours with rain, and the other roars with pain.

A poem entitled "The Strains the Angels Sing" is going the rounds. If it strains the angels as much to sing it as it does the mortals who read it, they don't sing often.

A Springfield paper says: "We know shoes have soles and tongues, and now a chap advertises, 'Shoes made Hear.'"
We don't believe it.

Grant declares that he will never lift
a finger to secure his renomination.
Possibly he won't, but he lifts every office-holder who doesn't labor to secure it.

An editor, alluding to the demand for female shurage, female doctors and female clergymen, remarks that another want presents itself—that of female workmen.

SPARKLING and bright—is the Soda
Water that our friend and neighbor
Bradley drenched the entire News office with on yesterday evening.

His splendid fountain is in operation, and dispensing a good article of the cooling beverage.

NARROW ESCAPE.—Yesterday morning the plastering fell from the ceiling in the bed room of Mr. King, of the firm of King & Whitelaw, where his infant was sleeping in a cradle or crib which narrowly escaped being struck.
The cradle was broken by the fall and the child covered with the dust but received no injury.

PAID OVER.—The State Treasurer,
on yesterday, paid over to L. E. Heart, Esq., Treasurer, etc., the sum of $12,500
to the Board of Directors, for the Deaf, Dumb and Blind Institute. This places the Institute on its feet again, whereby the necessity for a suspension is obviated.

SKETCHING.—We are gratified to see that Morgan, the "landscapist" and
"sketchist," is overrun with business.
We observed yesterday, in the squares, several views of the Capitol, Baptist and Episcopal churches, taken by Morgan, which are considered by those who have a right to know, as far superior to any ever before taken in this city.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Lottie Harrison,
a colored woman, living in the vicinity of the Fair Grounds, died suddenly, it is supposed from heart disease, yesterday evening. She was an unusually hale, healthy and hearty woman, aged about 60 years, had eaten a usual dinner and was attending to her household duties, when she fell to the floor and instantly expired.

LOCAL MARKET.—N. C. hams, 16¢; salt pork, 10¢12¢; Beef—steaks, 15¢20¢;
roasting, 15¢17¢; stewing, 10¢12¢;
shoat, 12¢; mutton, 12¢; sausage, 20¢- 25¢; eggs, 16¢; chickens, 35¢45¢; butter, 35¢45¢; spring salad, 15¢ per peck;
lettuce, 12¢ per doz.; onions, carrot, scallops, etc., 10¢ per bunch; sweet potatoes, $1.20; Irish potatoes, $1.50a
$2.00; navy beans, 15¢ per quart; peas, 15¢ per quart.

PROBABLE DECLINE IN SAUSAGE.—
A lad in Western Ward killed three dogs on yesterday, that had been warned on several occasions, by the aid of sticks, missiles etc., to keep off the premises of the lad, and that they were fed as a penalty for their evil doings.

GEN. S. F. CARY.—Extensive preparations are being made for the reception of this distinguished Temperance lecturer on the occasion of his visit to our city. Tucker Hall has been procured for him and no price of admission will be charged. Of course every body will turn out.

WE WELCOME HIM BACK.—The many friends of the Hon. W. N. H. Smith will be glad to know that this distinguished son of North Carolina, who some two years since took up his residence in Norfolk, Va., thinks of returning to this State and making Raleigh his home. It is rumored that he speaks of forming a law co-partnership with Geo. V. Strong, Esq., the former partner of the lamented Gov. Bragg.
If such be the case, there is not a man to be found who could so well fill the vacancy left by this eminent man.

MORE LIBERAL STILL.—We learn from head-quarters that before solicitations were made from any one, Mr.
Rutjes, proprietor of the National Hotel, offered to take delegates and visitors to the Southern Baptist Convention at $1.50 per day, his regular charges being $3.00 provided a certain number are entertained by him.

We learn also that at the last three sessions of this body, held in Macon, Ga., Louisville, Ky., and St. Louis, Mo., only half price was charged those who attended the convention by all hotels.

The boarding houses of Raleigh will entertain during the convention, at $1.
per day.

The prospects indicate that our little city will be full of strangers in the flowery month of May.

NOON DISPATCHES.

Congressional Proceedings.
WASHINGTON, April 9.

SENATE.—Discussing on bill in relation to a depot in the heart of the city for the Pennsylvania Central combination. The question is upon its reference to a favorable committee.

Ways and Means Committee are considering details for uniform tobacco tax.

HOUSE.—Sypher, from the Committee on Railways and Canals, reported a bill to incorporate the Shreveport, Oklahoma and New Mexico Railroad, which was ordered to be printed and recommitted.
Bill for the relief of Chatterton & McGuire, Rome, Ga., passed.

Three members were appointed to cooperate with the committee for the Morse memorial on the 16th of April.

The Case of Dr. Howard.
WASHINGTON, April 9.

The State Department has received advice that the Madrid Government is investigating the case of Dr. Howard, in the meantime Dr. Howard remains at Cadiz. Orders have been given for his treatment.

Rejoicing at the Spanish Elections—
Conservative Triumph.
HAVANA, April 9.

The Spaniards here are rejoicing over the election in Spain, and the Spanish Conservative triumph in the Porto Rico elections for members of the Cortes.

New York Affairs.
NEW YORK, April 9.

A meeting of the National Democratic Committee has been called for Wednesday, 8th May, at the residence of the chairman, Mr. August Belmont, in this city, to designate the time and place for the National Convention.

The World says that Belmont's procrustation meets the approval of the Democratic leaders, and adds that the delay seems to have been occasioned with a view to take advantage of the Cincinnati Convention results, which may determine as to the time for holding the Democratic National Convention.

The Emperor's Speech to the German Parliament—Alsace and Lorraine.
BERLIN, April 9.

Bismarck read the Emperor's speech upon the opening of the German parliament. Uniform beer and malt tax and the acquisition of Alsace and Lorraine are the most startling topics. The speech concludes: "The strength acquired by the imperialization is the bulwark of the Fatherland and a guarantee of peace to Europe."

Remonstrance against Spain—Recent dispatch from the United States Denied.
LONDON, April 9.

Remonstrance to the Spanish Government against the prohibition of the departure of Chinese laborers from Cuba was urged in the House of Commons.
The Ministry stated that the Government was aware that the Havana authorities forbid their exodus.

The Post's rumor that the Foreign Office had received a despatch from the United States which solved the question of consequential damages is authoritatively denied. The contradiction produced general disappointment.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

Congressional Proceedings.
WASHINGTON, April 9.

SENATE.—The morning hour was exhausted with the depot. No action, but other business was done, and the vote to refer the bill to the Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds which is understood to be opposed to the grant, was lost, yeas 18, nays 38.
The bill was then referred to the District of Columbia. This action secures the ultimate triumph of the Pennsylvania Central combination in securing depot facilities in the city which the Baltimore and Ohio combination have been fighting for quite bitterly.

Bill authorizing the sale of the old arsenal grounds at Augusta, Ga., was passed.

Power, from the Committee on Public Lands, reported bills to incorporate the New Mexico Central Railroad Company and the New Mexico and Gulf Railway Company, and to grant them the right of way.

Upon intimation that Parker's name,
at his own request, had been withdrawn,
and that Ingraham, colored, had been nominated Surveyor of Customs for New Orleans, Senator Wilson moved for executive session. Kellogg then reported Ingraham's nomination from the Committee on Commerce, and moved the suspension of the rules, when the nomination was confirmed.

The Senate remained in executive session but a few moments.

HOUSE.—Bill authorizing the issue of one cent postal cards passed.

House members of the Morse Memorial Committee—Roberts, Palmer and Shober.

Weather Probabilities.

WASHINGTON, April 9.

The lowest barometer now will probably central over the Georgia Bay and move northwardly down the St.
Lawrence valley, with diminishing pressure over the New England States.
Rising barometer, with westerly to northwesterly winds, and clear and clearing weather, will prevail on Wednesday, from the lakes to the gulf, and South and Middle Atlantic coasts, and extend over New England by and on Wednesday morning. Brisk westerly during to-night, from the upper to the lower lake region, and to the middle Atlantic coast, but dangerous winds are not anticipated, except possibly for the lower lakes.

Fifteen inches of snow; weather still threatening.

State vs. Lovelace Puryear—larceny—rebound in the sum of $200 to next
term.

State vs. Ray and Ray—peace warrant—discharged on payment costs.
State vs. Jesse Norwood; obstructing highway. Up to 8 o'clock last evening, the jury was unable to agree
upon a verdict.

The most important case for trial at
the present term is the case of the State
vs. Lawhorne, "robbery and conspiracy,"
from Johnson county. The case is set
for Wednesday next and will occupy
the entire day in its hearing.

Four State witnesses were called and
failed to answer, when they were fined
by the Court $50, each.

METROPOLITAN HALL LAST EVEN-
ING.—One of the most laughable and
entertaining exhibitions ever known at Metropolitan Hall, came off according
to programme last evening. The "rads"
of Eastern Ward met in convention to
nominate candidates for Commissioners.
One Jas. T. Ball, assisted by Hardy
Lockhart and J. Williams, the latter
two colored, officiated as President,
Vice President and Secretary. A committee was appointed to report the names of candidates. During the absence of the committee, there was much speechifying. We have not space to make personal mention of those who
"came unprepared," and not used to
public speaking, and "would have
been glad if they had called on a
smarter man," etc., etc.

We agreed with them, that they were
unprepared, and we should think they
we believe a much smarter man was
suddenly needed.

The Committee reported three names
for Commissioners. Here the sport of the evening commenced. The President got too excited to remain in the chair, and yielded to Lockhart. We at one time saw as many as ten on the floor, all calling loudly on "Mr. President." Every man had a motion—no
two alike or referring to the same matter; each man insisted that every body else
was out of order but himself, while old Handy as chairman, labored in vain to impress the fact that all were out of order.

About the moment that the powers of old Handy were exhausted,
Ball resumed the chair. The confusion
was caused by opposition to the ticket.
The desired alteration was

STATE CONVENTION.

The State Convention of the Democratic-Conservative Party of North Carolina will meet at Greensboro on Wednesday, the first day of May next.

COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Conservative and Democratic Citizens of Wake County will hold a Convention at the Court House in this city, on Saturday, April 13th, 1872, for the purpose of selecting delegates to represent the county in the approaching State Convention, at Greensboro, and to form a more perfect organization for the coming campaign. Chairmen of township committees are requested to hold primary meetings in their respective townships and select delegates to attend this county Convention.

G. H. SNOW,

Ch'n County Executive Committee.

JUDICIAL PROPRIETY.

Judge Moore, in his charge to the Grand Jury on Monday, read from the report of the Legislative Committee to show that the Directors of the Penitentiary had been guilty of gross neglect in the discharge of their duties. His Honor read only those parts of the report which contradicted the recommendations of the Grand Jury to investigate the facts, and if proven to be true to indict the parties who were responsible for the outrages.

Was it fair in the Judge to read only a portion of the report, and to omit every part thereof, which contradicted the imputations upon the Directors?

Was it proper in the Judge to read any part of the report or even the whole of it to the Grand Jury?

Since writing our comments of his charge on Monday we have heard the propriety of the Judge's conduct in this matter criticised by eminent and disinterested counsel who think it was a grave error on the part of His Honor, and that he transcended his authority in reading only a portion of a report, when that testimony was contradicted by the statements of other witnesses embodied in the same report.

It is unquestionably the right and duty of a Judge when complaints are made to him of any crime or misdemeanor to ask the Grand Jury to enquire into the facts and see if the complaints be well grounded. But a Judge has no right in any particular case to comment on a portion only of published testimony; and if any bills of indictment are found under such a charge, we have the highest authority for stating that in case of conviction the defendants could except to the instructing to the Grand Jury with the same propriety as they could to those given to the Petit Jury, when they are against the law and without the province of the Judge.

We have also heard the manner of Judge Moore criticised on the ground that he read the testimony of the Legislative Committee with a good deal of feeling and emphasis, so as to indicate to the Jury that he believed the statements to be true, and this was considered objectionable as having a tendency to bias the minds of the Jury.

We have also heard objection made to the Judge's charge on the ground that it was not impartial because it was his duty, if he alluded to the testimony at all, to have called attention to the character of the witnesses, who he knew were mostly convicts and abandoned characters, and he should have called attention to what weight such testimony was entitled to in our Courts.

If Judge Moore has erred in this manner, from the high character he has hitherto borne for impartiality we are well persuaded that he has done so under a mistaken sense of public duty. For one, we shall regret to see him lose the good name he has won in the second Judicial District and the high estimation in which he is held by all parties for judicial fairness and honesty. It is refreshing to have on the bench in these times of venality and political corruption, a man in whom the people have confidence and whom they can respect. We know with what a sense of relief Judge Moore was welcomed by the bar of Edgecombe and the public generally when he held his first Court at Tarboro as the successor of Judge Jones. We shall be loth to believe that Judge Moore is willing to forfeit the reputation he has made, by using his position to advance the purposes of party or to gratify the malice and spleen of his political friends.

If Judge Moore was guilty of impropriety in his charge to the Grand Jury on Monday, we shall be charitable enough to attribute his conduct to overheard zeal in the cause of justice and humanity, and not to party spirit and party malevolence.

We shall never wantonly assail an officer when we think he is striving to discharge his duty, and certainly we have no disposition to bring the Judiciary into contempt by wholesale and bitter abuse of our Judges. At the same time we recognize it as the duty of a free and independent press to indulge in wholesome criticism of all public officials, and to denounce them in proper terms and with becoming severity, when the occasion demands it. It is sad to contemplate the disgrace which has been brought upon the Judiciary of the State by a set of creatures who have been hoisted into seats once occupied by jurists distinguished for their learning, moral worth, untiring integrity and conscientious discharge of duty. It was confidently believed that Judge Moore would form an exception to the general character of Radical Judges. In this belief, the public have not been disappointed. Judge Moore's career on the bench thus far, gives earnest that he will continue to act with uprightness and fairness.

While this is so, upon consideration we do not think his charge to the Grand Jury altogether proper, or just to the Directors of the Penitentiary. We have as great a horror for the outrages, condemned by Judge Moore as his Honor can have. If proved to exist, we shall not apologize for them, nor attempt to conceal the truth. But in the same report which contained the testimony of horse-thieves and other infamous characters, which his Honor quoted with so much emphasis, we also find the testimony of such men as the eminent Dr. Hill, Mr. Hicks, Mr. Fuller, Mr. Whitaker and other gentlemen of character, tending in a great measure to exonerate the Directors, and contradicting the testimony which his Honor read to the Grand Jury.

VALUABLE PUBLICATIONS.

We have received the following valuable publications for April:

I. THE CAROLINA FARMER AND MONTHLY MAGAZINE, Wm. H. Bernard, Editor and Proprietor, Wilmington, N. C.

This is one of the neatest and most valuable publications of the kind ever published in North Carolina. Its typographical execution, useful selections and practical editorials on subjects relating to the Agricultural interests of North Carolina, are highly creditable to the enterprising Proprietor, and he deserves liberal encouragement and support in his laudable efforts. The contents of the April number are varied: Under the head Agriculture, are eleven articles; under Stock Yard, five; under Poultry Yard, three; under Miscellaneous, twenty-one; under Editorial, six; under Communications, six; and under Household, six. Some of the articles treat on subjects of the highest importance to farmers, and the April number alone, is worth more than double the subscription price.

Terms of the Carolina Farmer, $2.00 a year, in advance; Carolina Farmer and Weekly Star, $3.00; Carolina Farmer and Daily Star, $3.00. [By the way, the Star is one of the sprightliest and best edited Democratic papers in the State.]

Why don't Bernard put the price of the Farmer on the cover?

II. THE RURAL CAROLINIAN, Walker, Evans & Cogswell, Publishers, Charleston, S. C., $2.00 per annum, in advance. This seems to be a decidedly able and admirable Agricultural and Scientific journal. In its article on "Valuable Southern Minerals" allusion is made to the corundum existing in Western North Carolina. From this article we make the following interesting extract:

"But the most interesting are the corundum discoveries, now in progress in several contiguous counties situated on the confines of North Carolina and Georgia, the centre of which region being not far from Franklin, in Macon county, North Carolina. The first observation was made about twenty years ago, and resulted from the finding, by a negro boy, at the foot of a mountain in Buncombe county, a highly crystalline mass of about 10 lbs. weight of blue corundum, (sapphire). The specimen was taken to the Hon. T. L. Clingman, who transmitted a considerable portion of it to me for examination and identification. The mass excited much attention at the time, not only in this country but in Europe, where it was recognized as strikingly similar to specimens found in the Swiss Mountains. No further discoveries of corundum were made until within a few years, since which, however, it has been brought to light in very large quantities, and in masses of extraordinary dimensions. One crystal, (now in my possession), of a red and blue color, weighing by itself 316 pounds!

The Corundum Company of Franklin, has already gathered several tons of the material, which is used in manufacturing $500 the ton. Its use is analogous to that of emery, only it is much more valuable for wearing and cutting away surfaces of glass and steel than that agent. The abrading power of corundum powder, to that of emery, being as 3 to 2. It is not impossible also, that these mines may furnish sapphires and rubies suited to the purposes of jewelry.

III. SOUTHERN FARM AND HOME. W. M. Browne, Editor, Bogle & Chapman, Publishers, Memphis, Tenn. Price $2.00 a year.

This magazine, devoted to Agriculture, Manufactures and Domestic Economy, is of a high order of merit. In addition to the other features, it has a Literary Department, containing select poetic gems, reviews of new publications, &c. It is an interesting work, and deserves to succeed.

IV. THE RECONSTRUCTED FARMER. Thigpen & Stamps, Editors, Tarboro, N. C., $2.00 per annum in advance.

The contents of the April number are not so varied as usual, but the articles will be found of unusual value. The Essay on Bee culture by Mr. Shultz of Salem and the proceedings of the Goodwyn Agricultural Club of Granville are the principal features of interest. Among the latter we find "An Essay upon Grass" by Nath. V. Watkins, a subject upon which the Farmers of Granville deserve to be aroused, as they are now suffering severely for want of forage. There is also "An Essay on Tobacco," by James B. Hobgood, of Granville, which we will endeavor to find room for hereafter in the columns of the News.

RADICAL HYPOCRISY.

Some of the adherents of Radicalism recoil from the task of defending the frauds, bribes and extravagance of their party. They not merely refuse to defend their party friends from the charge of corruption, but their curses are loud, if not deep, in denunciation of every species of robbery, rascality and political crime. While a portion of this class may be sincere and really desirous to see the Government administered on sound, economical principles, yet the conduct of many who are clamorous for retrenchment and reform, is so conspicuously inconsistent with their professions that they are either infected with a blind fanaticism, or are practical exemplifications of a degree of hypocrisy in human nature that cannot be adequately characterized by any term of reproach at our command. As a conclusive proof of this charge, we need only refer to the scenes witnessed at every election, when these individuals not only vote for the retention of men in office who were the authors of the mischief they profess so heartily to reprobate, but with fervid and unabated zeal they work from "early morn till dewy eve," to secure the promotion of these very men to positions demanding the highest qualities of integrity and honor in the incumbents. And when these unworthy stewards, whom they sustain and support in spite of their delinquencies, gain a victory over gentlemen whose qualifications are conceded by all, whose characters are untarnished by a blench of suspicion, these political hypocrites are the loudest in their shouts of victory, and the foremost to extend the hand of congratulation and rejoicing. Such action may result occasionally from blind fanaticism, but as a general rule we think it shows conclusively that the loud professions in behalf of an honest and economical system of government are hollow and insincere.

HON. W. N. H. SMITH.

It is with pleasure we record the fact that Hon. W. N. H. Smith, formerly of Hertford county, in this State, who has been associated for the past twelve months with Hon. Asa Biggs, in the city of Norfolk, has decided to return to the Old North State, and to make his home in Raleigh. We learn that he will probably form a co-partnership with Geo. V. Strong, Esq., of this city, in the practice of law, and that he contemplates moving his family here in a short time.

North Carolina needs the services of such men at this time, and we trust that others of her sons who have gone abroad will follow the example of Mr. Smith, and devote their services to lifting up our Mother State from her prostrate and pitiable condition.

LIBERTY OR DEATH.—Train asks: "How can any one for a moment, calculate on Gen. Grant's re-election? See the changes of an hour; Isabella pitched out of Spain; the Pope out of Italy; Napoleon out of France; Tycoon makes way for the Mikado in Japan; Tweed drops like a lump of mud out of Tammany; Fisk shot like a dog; and now Gould, Fisher, the king of a thousand miles of rail, sitting on an empty beer barrel, in the back yard of the opera house, contemplating the ruins of ancient Rome. How can corruption, fraud, lying, hypocrisy, nepotism, poker and whisky, hope to force, with a five-twenty in one hand and a bayonet in the other, the entire Dent family down the starving throats of the American people?"

The amendments of the Senate Claims Committee to the House bill, providing means for taking testimony at the South and elsewhere for the use of the Southern Claims Commission, require that in all claims above $10,000 in amount, the witnesses shall be produced before the Commissioners at Washington.

It is proposed to have a meeting on the first Wednesday in May, in Brunswick, Ga., for the purpose of forming a Medical Association of all the physicians south of the Altamaha river and about Blackshear, Ga.

King Ludwig, of Bavaria, and the eldest daughter of Prince Frederick Charles, of Prussia, are betrothed. He is 27 years old and the Princess is in her 17th year.

Fleury, cashier of the bank at Limerick, Ireland, has absconded with a large amount of money and is believed to have taken passage for the United States.

Mr. Minor, the American who has been acquitted, in London, of murder, on the ground of insanity, will be placed temporarily in an insane asylum.

Father Gavazzi, the Italian priest, will sail for the United States in the steamship Russia, in company with Rev. Mr. Thompson, of Pennsylvania.

Governor Parker, of New Jersey, has signed the bill making free roads between the cities of Newark and New York.

It is rumored that a coldness exists between President Grant and General Horace Porter, supposed to have grown out of the Lee-Stocking affair.

Prince Arthur, of England, will soon be promoted to the rank of Major and sent to India for two years.

Daniel Gleason, the North Adams (Mass.) murderer, will be tried at Pittsfield in that State, on the 14th inst.

The Earl of Lonsdale leaves a fortune of a £1,000,000 sterling.

Work is being pushed forward on the Lynchburg and Danville rail road.

Cattle in Southwest Virginia are suffering for want of food.

The population of Boston averages 240 to the house.

Dr. Peter Wilson, a descendant of Red Jacket, died a few days since.

Theodore Thomas' troupe will be in Baltimore on the 15th inst.

A new order, "The Iron Band," has been organized in Richmond, Va.

An attempt was recently made to rob the post office at Bayonne, N. J. The party was arrested.

Mrs. Shea, charged with the murder of policeman Doyle, in Washington City, has been acquitted.

The United States steamship Frolic, has lost thirteen of her crew by desertion.

Mrs. French has recovered $3,500 damages against the Old Dominion Steamship Company, for injuries sustained on one of her steamers.

The Michigan Central rail road has made a contract for a double track from Detroit to Ypsilanti, and from Niles to Lake station, to be completed within sixty days.

THEY TELL ME SHE'S NO LONGER FAIR.

They tell me she's no longer fair,
That time has swept aside
The lustre of her youthful brow,
Her beauty's blooming pride—
But if her heart is still the same,
Still gentle as of yore,
Then is she beautiful to me—
More lovely than before.

They tell me that her cheek is pale
As is the twilight hour,
And that her eye has lost its fire,
Her glance its former power,
But if her soul is still as chaste
Still gentle as of yore,
Then is she beautiful to me—
More lovely than before.

But, oh! 'tis in the shrunken soul
Where beauty purest dwells,
Where virtue lives and truth exists
Like pearls in ocean shells,
Give me a feeling, faithful heart,
Perfection's richest prize,
That is the temple of all love,
Where beauty never dies.

Then say not she's no longer fair,
That time has swept aside
The lustre of her youthful brow,
Her beauty's blooming pride—
But if her heart is still the same,
Still gentle as of yore,
Then is she beautiful to me—
More lovely than before.

A RAILROAD WHISTLE.—None but locomotive engineers are permitted a perusal of this:

When I was teaching in—Seminary, I boarded with an old lady who had an opinion on every subject, and expressed it. One night the train ran off the track near by, and in consequence, there was a deal of whistling. Next morning the old lady inquired if we had heard the disturbance.

"No," my wife thought something was the matter, but I heard nothing. "Well," said she, "I dare presume there has been an accident, for the cars have been whistling 'most all night. They whistled, I dare presume, a half an hour at a time. I didn't think it possible for a man to hold his breath so long."

"Why, mother," interrupted her daughter, "it's a steam whistle." "La!" said the old lady, "I always thought it was the engineer that whistled!"

VACCINATED HIS CLASSMATES.—The Manchester Express says: An eight year old boy of this city, a pupil of our public schools, and who was vaccinated several weeks ago, conceived a novel idea, which he successfully carried into practice. He saved the scab from his arm, pulverized it on a piece of glass, and took it to school with him.

With the schoolyard for his office, he proceeded with a great deal of dignity to vaccinate his little companions. On one of them he made the incision on his knee, on another the arm, on another the cheek, and so on. They all "took!"

A GOOD MEMORY.—We read too much, and think about what we read too little; the consequence is, that most of the people we meet know something in a superficial way about almost everything. Not a tenth part of what is read is remembered for a month after the book or newspaper is laid aside. Daniel Webster, who had a rich store of information on almost every subject of general interest, said that it had been his habit for years to reflect for a short time on whatever he read, and to fix the thoughts and ideas worth remembering in his mind. One who does this, will be surprised to find how retentive his memory will become, or how long after reading an interesting article, the best portions of it will remain with him.

When Mrs. Isabella Beecher Hooker was urging the selection of William as a candidate to admit women as voters, she claimed to have the sympathy of one of the members, the town clerk. She said, she said, in the twinkling of his eye, and was somewhat taken aback at the reply, "I beg your pardon, madam, but that is a glass eye!" Rather a chilling kind of sympathy that beams from a vitreous optic.

Courtship is a fine bowling green, all galloping round and sweet-heating, a sunshine holiday in summer time; but when once through matrimony's turnpike the weather becomes wintry, and some husbands are seized with a cold, aguish fit to which the faculty give the name of indifference.

A veteran observer says: "I never place much reliance on a man who is always telling what he would have done had he been there. I have noticed that somehow this kind of people have never got there."

A wise man counts his minutes; he lets no time slip, for time is life, which he makes long by the good husbandry or a right application of it.
